CONNOLLY DECLARES A COMPANY WIDE “GREEN” DAY

Atlanta, GA/Wilton, CT – On August 5, 2011, Connolly, Inc., the largest privately held recovery audit firm in the world, launched a “Green” Day aimed at curtailing waste and cleaning up the environment. “The day is designed to encourage conservation of natural resources by eliminating waste and pooling resources,” said Marketing Manager Susan Meller who initiated the effort along with HR Manager Mitch Podob. Both work at the Audit Support Center in Wilton, CT.

Efforts were inspired by recent Connolly advances that have made it possible to eliminate the use of paper in high volume faxing and to process paperless claims. Traditional efforts such as car pooling, reducing the use of paper goods in the company cafés, and continued progress in recycling are also being emphasized. Connolly offices around the world shared in the day’s activities which were also collected and publicized in the company’s newsletter, Connolly Connection.
