Connolly Does Well While Also Doing Good

Atlanta, GA/Wilton, CT September 7, 2011 – “Connolly employees are showing a higher-than-ever level of commitment to their work, while also taking actions to support the charitable causes they believe in,” said CEO Larry Connolly. “Employee morale and output is terrific and our fiscal half year numbers look great.” The company, comprised of nearly 900 employees, performs recovery auditing services for the largest and best-run companies in the world. Included for the fourth year on the Inc. 5000 list of the fastest growing private companies in America, it has also twice been named a “Best Places to Work” company.

In the first half of 2011, Connolly revenues rose more than 26% compared with the same time period last year. Both the company and the Healthcare Division had their best month ever, while the Retail Division and Commercial Division also made gains. “This is truly a cause for pride for each and every one of you; job well done,” Mr. Connolly said in his monthly column to the employees. .

The commitment shown by Connolly employees to their company extends also to charitable causes. “In the first half of the year Connolly employees averaged more than one charitable event a week,” said VP of HR Skip Proctor. Charities include The American Red Cross, Susan G. Komen events including a concert and participation in Race for the Cure, The Boys & Girls Club, The American Heart Association, The American Cancer Society, The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, A Better Chance, Autism Speaks, Team Ortho (orthopedic) Foundation, The Norwalk Mentor Program, The Samaritan Inn, Mid-Atlantic Great Dane Rescue League, Chandler Hall Hospice, Schoolhouse Apartments, Second Baptist Church of Doylestown, Waveny Care Network, Alonzo Mourning Foundation (a Florida charity that Connolly donated bicycles to), Mission Arlington, and Teenager Cancer Trust. “We have the best people in the industry,” Mr. Proctor said, “It is evidenced by their performance and their commitment to what they believe in each and every single day.”
