Connolly Celebrates 31 Years in Recovery Auditing

Atlanta, GA - Connolly announced today that it is celebrating 31 years in the recovery audit business, having been founded in 1979 by Jim Connolly, a former president of Gimbels.

The company, which is headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, has offices throughout the US, and in the UK and Canada. Employing more than 700 auditors and audit support staff, the firm provides services for more than 14 industry verticals in the areas of Healthcare, Retail and Commercial. With a 97% customer satisfaction and loyalty rating, and consistent double digit growth, Connolly is the largest private recovery audit firm in the world and is well positioned for the future.

About Connolly - Connolly is the largest privately-held recovery audit firm in the world, with offices located throughout the US, and in Canada, and the UK. Connolly's headquarters are in Atlanta, Georgia and its Audit Support Center is in Wilton, Connecticut. Connolly assists clients in numerous industries ranging from Consumer Products to Manufacturing to Energy, through their three lines of business, Retail, Healthcare, and Commercial. Recovery auditing involves recouping the millions of dollars each year that clients have erroneously paid to suppliers, vendors, and providers. These errors can include duplicate payments, missed discounts, and more, and are endemic to any large organization. Connolly's expertise extends to recommending vital process improvements to avoid future financial losses. Connolly was founded in 1979 and is in its third consecutive year on the Inc. 5000 List of the Fastest Growing Private Companies in America. Connolly is also a recipient of a Best Places to Work Award for 2010 and 2011 as well as a Microsoft Gold Partner. Connolly enjoys a 97% customer loyalty and satisfaction rating and has an extremely low voluntary turnover rate. More information on Connolly and its services can be obtained at: www.connolly.com.
